Sacramento California!

Not a city. Merely an exclamation. You'll be using this quaint old Spanish (or is it Italian?) Expression if you miss the new Paramount picture now showing at the

MAJESTIC THEATRE

In case you don't know, it's a thrilling story of sly-dog villains and romantic Latins; the former led by Fred Kohler, the latter by

Richard Dix

What's that? Yes, there's a girl, Thelma Todd. Richard is her—well, he's

SUBURBAN HEIGHTS

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

HUMOUR: ANCIENT AND MODERN.

Ted: "My Pop is a Moose, an Elk, a Lion, and a Red Man!"
Bert: "Do you have to pay to look at him?"

Traveller: "Did you find a roll containing 800 under my pillow?"
Pullman Porter: "Yes, suh; thank you, suh."

"I don't suppose she suffered any after-effects from her operation?"
"No; but everybody else did."

Clerk: "I'd like my salary raised next week."
Harassed Business Man: "You'll be lucky if I can raise it this week."

"What rent do you pay?"
"I don't pay it."
"What would it be if you did pay it?"
"A miracle."

Croesus: "Why don't you make a practice of saving $10 a week?"
Diogenes: "I tried it once and the installment collectors wouldn't stand for it."

Lawyer: "To help me to get you acquitted, your wife will have to give a little during the trial."
Client: "That's easy; just tell her I'm going to be acquitted."

Seaside Visitor: "Whatever was that singing throughout the night?"
Chambermaid: "We was so full, sir, that mistress left the bath to a gentleman."

The Lady: "Is this fur real beaver?"
The Salesman: "Well, of course, you know, madam, that it is really only rabbit-skin doctored up."

"I know; but is it real rabbit-skin?"
First Business Woman: "Well, I must hurry home to dinner. I love a good home-cooked meal, don't you?"

Second: "Yes, but I'm beginning to suspect my husband's spending his afternoons in the matinees. I'm positive that pudding last night came from the delicatessen."

Mary possessed a diminutive specimen of the family of Bovides. Its outer covering was the colour of aqua vapor, of the atmosphere in the crystalline form.

It so happened that to every designation that Mary perambulated, the diminutive specimen of the family of Bovides would not fail to pursue her, thus carrying out its prognostication.

"Your wife is a very systematic woman, isn't she?"
"Yes, very. She works on the theory that you can find whatever you want when you don't want it by looking where it wouldn't be, if you did want it."

The professor's wife was speaking of the family of Bovides, and said, "that you do not look so well dressed as you used to."

"That's strange," said the professor thoughtfully, "for they are the same clothes."

We had to face the north wind, coming home from a visit to a nearby neighbour on a cold winter night. Little Alden trudged along without a word. His father asked him if he was cold.

"No, I'm not; but, boy, that wind sure is!" he answered.

Golf Widow—"You think so much of your old golf game that you don't even remember when we were married."

Golf Bug—"Of course I do, my dear; it was the day I sank that thirtyfoot putt."

Mrs. Hoskinson—"I have found out one thing about that Mrs. Newcome. Whoever she is, she has certainly never moved in good society."

Mr. Hoskinson—"How do you know that?"
"She shakes hands as if she meant it."

Professor: "You can realize the great distance of this star from the earth when you consider that the light took several thousands of years to reach the earth."

Lady: "Yes, but the stars only shine at night; otherwise it would have got here quicker."

With her aunt, a pretty girl was in charge of a stall at the local church bazaar. A resident, a valet in attendance, stopped at this particular stall.

"Now, Mr. Gold, said the girl, 'what can I sell you?'"
"Two kisses," he answered, "and I'll give you a pound each for them."

"Right," said the girl. "Two kisses for Mr. Gold, please, Aunt."

Mr. Gold was equal to the occasion. "Collect the purchases, James," he murmured, as he handed the two notes.

There was a load of bricks on the edge of the football ground in readiness for some reconstruction work. A very keen supporter of the team came up. He gazed at the bricks for a few moments, knit his brow, as if in deep thought, and then turned to the club secretary, who was standing near by.

"Why didn't you get half-bricks?" he demanded. "They would have been much handier."

"Handier?" said the secretary. "I don't understand. We couldn't rebuild the pavilion with half-bricks."

"Oh—the pavilion!" sighed the supporter. "I thought they were for the refreshment."

In spite of a reckless swerve, the speeding motorist killed the fowl which had darted across the road in front of his car. The motorist pulled up just as an old woman who lived in a cottage near by came out of her gate.

Her face was stern, her expression hard and forbidding. Before she could utter a word the motorist plunged a hand in his pocket and tendered her a pound note.

"Here's my good woman," he said. "How are you?"
The sour face softened. "It's good of you," she said. "Now I shall be able to start keeping fowls myself."

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Reality" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 23.

The Golden Text was: "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life" (John 8: 12).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. With all lowliness and meekness, and long-suffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all" (Eph. 4: 1-6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, immortal, divine, eternal. Nothing unspiritual can be real, harmonious, or eternal. Sin, sickness, and mortality are the suppositional antipodes of Spirit, and must be contradictions of reality" (p. 335).

THE SILVER SCREEN.

THRILLS AT THE CENTRAL.

"The Mighty," the all-talking thriller now showing at the Central Theatre, possesses rare qualifications—and a logical story.

George Bancroft is the post-war gunman who laughs at the law and throws a draft summons in the waste basket. Four M.P.'s put him in the army and overseas he goes as Private Gresson. His natural instinct for gunning spurs him emerging from the war a full fledged major and a national hero. He is very impatient to get back to his old haunts.

In a city where he stops to see the family of an overseas buddy, he is offered the position of Commissioner of Public Safety and accepts to further his own interests. Esther Ralston is the girl who knows his past, yet loves him. He soon rides the city of all gangsters and then assembles his own gang for a grand coup. The gang becomes restless and decides to go ahead without their chief.

Then comes a most stirring bit of action showing Bancroft at the head of over two score of mounted motor-cycle officers overtaking a powerful gang of bank bandits.

"Hot for Paris."

Until Fifi Dorsay, vivacious French comedienne, singer and dancer, came to Hollywood and to the Fox Studios, she had never faced a camera. A Fox executive, with rare foresight, visualized Miss Dorsay as "just the type" to play opposite Will Rogers in "They Had to See Paris," and the sensation this young French girl caused in that production is a tribute to her talent.

Raoul Walsh saw and heard her on the set during the production of "They Had to See Paris," and immediately selected her for the role of "Fifi Dupre" in "Hot for Paris," featuring Victor McLaglen, El Brendel and Polly Moran.

Prior to coming to the talking screen, Fifi Dorsay had lent her fascinating beauty, her imitable dancing and her chic singing to musical comedy and to vaudeville.

In the Fox Movietone production, "Hot for Paris," she is a singer and dancer in a cafe and meets Victor McLaglen, first mate of a sailing vessel under strange circumstances. The picture, based on an original story by Walsh, centres around the efforts of McLaglen, who has won the grand prize in a sweepstakes to escape from those who are pursuing him to hand him a million dollars which he won.

In addition to the featured players the cast includes such well-known players as Anita Murray, Charles Judels, Lennox Pawle, August Tolaire and George Fawcett.

"Hot for Paris" is to be seen and heard at the Queen's Theatre for the last time to-day.

BURIAL HOAX.

YOUTH'S LETTER TO UNDERTAKER.

A Glasgow undertaker received a letter asking him to arrange for the funeral of a woman, and learned later, to his surprise, that the woman was alive.

It was alleged at Glasgow Police Court that the letter was sent by George Spiera (22). Spiera was also charged on remand with writing letters threatening people if they attended Protestant League meetings in St. James's Church.

It was said there had been discord at the church due to the Scottish Protestant League having been allowed to hold Sunday evening lectures. The woman whose funeral was ordered was a member of the church.

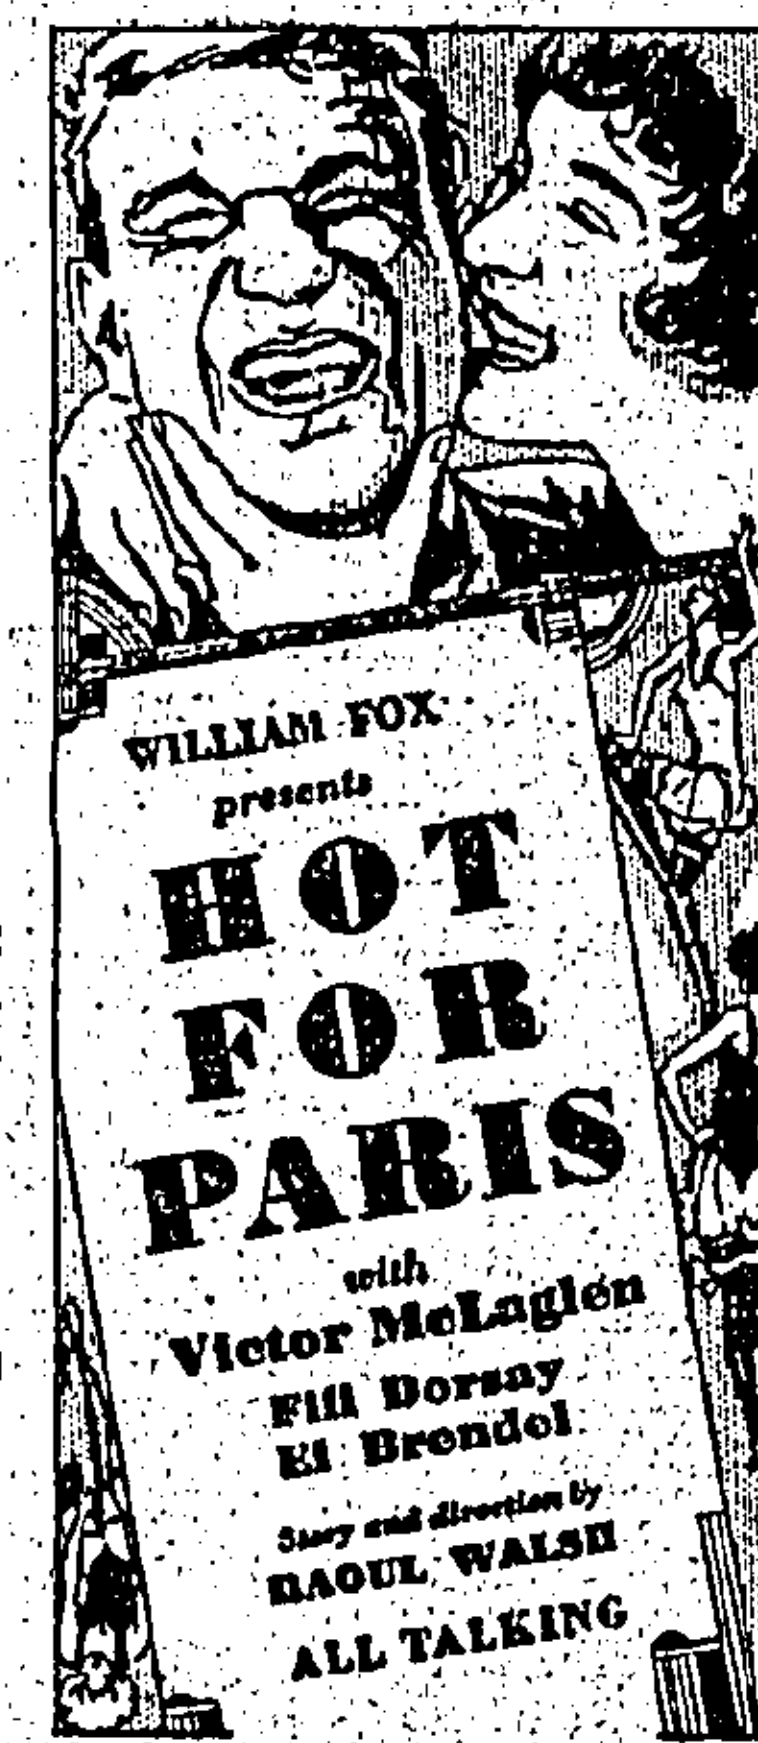

Charges of attempting to set fire to the church were found "not proven" but for the other offences Spiera was sent to prison for three months.

When sentence was pronounced the youth's mother rose in court and called to him: "George, you are innocent; we know it."

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY REPORT.

LOSS ON "THE GEISHA."

The report of the Philharmonic Society, which has just been circulated, reads:

The membership of the Society numbers 30: Vice-Presidents, four Subscribing Members, and 97 Ordinary Members, including those on leave.

The Committee have pleasure in announcing that His Excellency the Governor, Sir William Peel, K.B.E., C.M.G., has consented to become Patron of the Society in succession to Sir Cecil Clementi, K.C.M.G.

Sidney Jones' Musical Comedy "The Geisha" was produced in December. Mrs. F. G. Hunt acted as Hon. Producer, to whom the thanks of the Society are due.

Professor Brown, who was elected to the post of President of the Society at the last general meeting, resigned on proceeding on leave in May. His Honour Sir J. H. Kemp, Kt., K.C., C.B.E., accepted office but had to resign on proceeding on leave in August.

Messrs. A. M. Bowes-Smith and L. C. F. Bellamy resigned from the Committee on going on leave. As the Committee was up to full strength owing to co-options it was decided not to fill their places.

The duties of Hon. Secretary and Hon. Treasurer have been carried out during the season by Messrs. H. J. Best and F. S. W. Smith, respectively, to whom the thanks of the Society are gratefully tendered.

The Committee desire to place on record their indebtedness to all those who worked so hard towards the success of "The Geisha" production; to the Cathedral Church Council for the use of the Cathedral Hall for Committee meetings; and to Mr. Donald Black, C.A., for auditing the accounts.

The Society is to be congratulated on carrying forward a balance of $142.11 to season 1930-31.

The accounts for the production of "The Geisha" show a loss of $639.87. The costumes, which cost the Society $3,083.10, were auctioned for only $1,574.25.

IRELAND'S "GAMBLING HELLS."

DUBLIN MAGISTRATE'S ATTACK.

Strong comments on the existence of State recognised "gambling hells" were made by District Judge Little in a case heard at the Dublin District Court recently, when Patrick Kiernan (22), was charged with having stolen on various dates since last April sums of money amounting to £42.

A police officer said Kiernan's downfall had been caused by betting on horses. Mr. Little, referring to the saloons, said "It is a source of revenue to the State and a great scandal to the community. These gambling hells are cluttered up in the purlieus of the city."

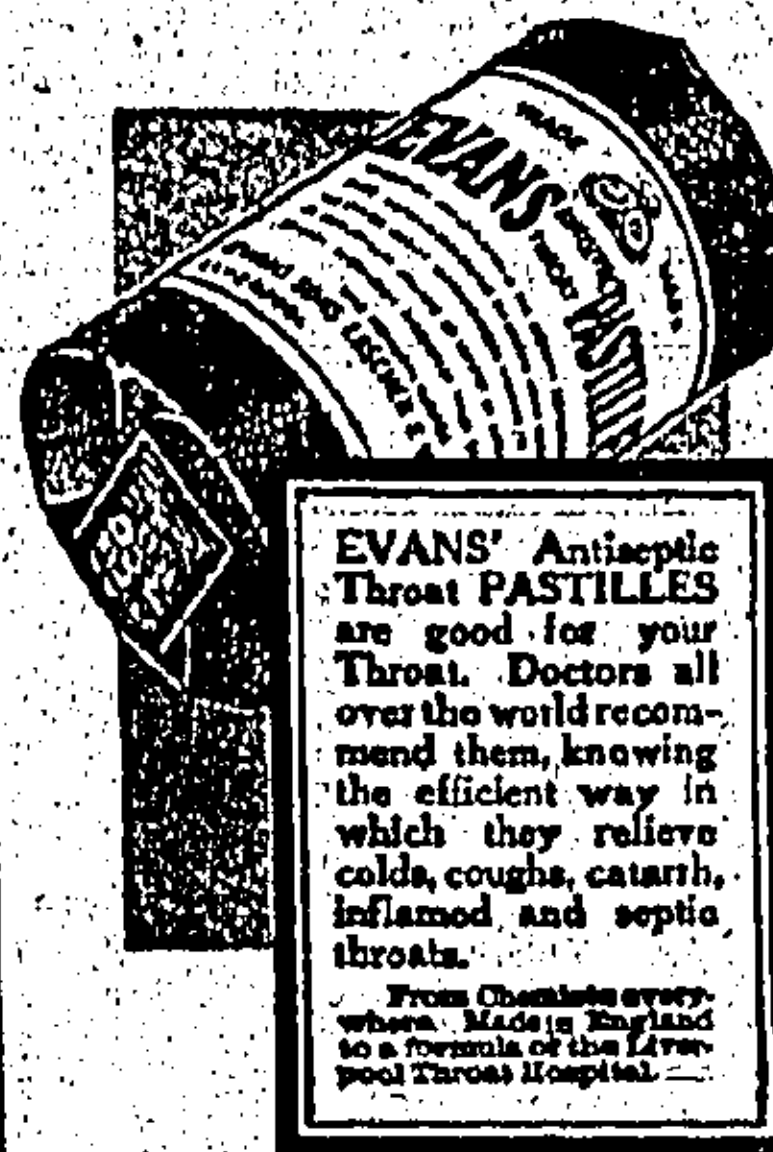

The solicitor for the accused said, "Crime has increased since these gambling hells have been opened. I have seen poverty stricken women leave their children outside betting shops while they went inside to put their husband's money on horses."

The accused was discharged under Probation Act, his father stating that he would try to repay the money.

Under a recent act public betting saloons are legal in the Irish Free State.

At Portsmouth on September 2 the cruiser Suffolk, Captain G. S. Arbuthnot, D.S.O., paid off and recommissioned with a full crew from the naval barracks for further service in the Fifth Cruiser Squadron, China Station. The Suffolk is the third of the "county" cruisers, in this Squadron to return to England for refit and recommissioning. The Cumberland and Derwick recommissioned in February and April respectively. The Cornwall is due to leave the Station for home on November 11 and, last, the flagship Kent will leave on March 15, 1931. Captain Arbuthnot has commanded the Suffolk since January, 1929. The executive officer is Commander E. S. F. Fegen, and the engineer officer Engineer Commander E. S. F. Fegen.

WOMEN'S APPEAL TO STATESMEN.

DELEGATION TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Geneva, September 20.—Women's associations throughout the world have sent a delegation to the League Assembly with the following appeal:—

"We, representing more than 40,000,000 women, consider it our duty to draw attention to the terrible fact that the newspapers, public opinion and even government circles incline to admit the possibility of a war or a discussion of war without bearing in mind the past of the renunciation of war signed by 67 nations.

"This attitude sullies the honour of the signatories of the Briand-Kellogg Pact. It is a menace to the world's youth and humanity in general and cannot be tolerated. We declare that peace is the most urgent task before humanity, and you statesmen, elected by the people's will, must consider as your honour and the honour of your country the pact you signed."

CANTON RESTAURANTS RE-OPEN.

OWNERS AND GOVERNMENT REACH AGREEMENT.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

Canton, Sept. 28. The restaurants and cafés in Canton, which have been on strike in protest against the Government tax farmers for the past three weeks, have finally decided to re-open for business next Tuesday.

After a series of round-table conferences with the Government representatives, the proprietors finally came to an agreement with the Government after the latter had modified its demands.

As agreed upon, the tax, which amounts to 10.5 per cent. of the amount paid by customers of the restaurants, will hereafter be collected by the proprietors and turned over directly to the Government, thus dispensing with the farming system. Instead of turning over each year $410,000 to the Government, the proprietors will remit $610,000.

FOREIGNERS ARRESTED IN CANTON.

SUSPECTED COMMUNISTS.

According to a Canton report, two young Poles, a man and a woman, and a Finnish youth were arrested at the Yuet Wah Hotel on the Bund on Friday.

Upon information that these foreigners were Communist agents, the Garrison Headquarters dispatched a squad of gendarmes to the hotel where the arrested people had taken up temporary lodgings. They offered resistance but eventually submitted after the soldiers threatened to shoot.

A quantity of literature in Polish and Finnish was seized and is being translated into Chinese. The accused are in custody waiting trial.

ARMS FOR CHINESE TROOPS.

RIFLE PARTS ON S.S. KING YUAN.

At the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, two Chinese were charged with being in unlawful possession of 350 rifle parts without licence from the Inspector General of Police.

Detective Sergeant C. Poyntz told the Court that both accused were found on board the s.s. King Yuan. The armament was concealed in the false bottoms of two rat-tan baskets. On being questioned, the first accused said that he was taking the rifle parts to Swatow, and then up country to the troops.

Piracy Not Contemplated.

The King Yuan continued the Sergeant, was a B. & S. boat, and was under the Piracy Regulations. The police were not taking a very serious view of the case because piracy was not contemplated. The first accused pleaded guilty and said that he would take full responsibility.

The Magistrate (Mr. H. R. Rutter) imposed a fine of $100 with the alternative of two months' hard labour on the first accused, while the second was discharged.

RECENT HEROIN SEIZURE. LACK OF EVIDENCE AGAINST ACCUSED.

The case in which a Chinese was charged with the alleged possession of 20,000 heroin pills in one of the rooms of the Asia Hotel was again heard before Mr. R. E. Lindell on Saturday.

R. O. Grimmit intimated that he had made further investigation into the case and found that the room was not booked by the defendant but by another man. This fact, he said, would not help his case, rather the reverse.

Further, there were only five pills found in the defendant's personal possession, and as at least 20 pills were required for purposes of analysis, R. O. Grimmit would not be able to give such evidence as was required. Unless it could be proved that the 20,000 pills were in the defendant's possession at the time of seizure, the case for the prosecution would probably fail.

In discharging the defendant, his Worship remarked that he was very fortunate that the evidence was not given. He was working in conjunction with others in the affair.

NEW REGULATIONS.

Regulation 9 of the regulations made by the Governor in Council under the Live Stock Import and Export Ordinances, 1930, which regulation 9 is set forth on page 304 of the Regulations of Hong Kong, 1934-1935, has been rescinded and the following regulation is substituted therefor:—

Not more than forty pigs in any vessel shall be placed in one pen. Three square feet shall be allowed per head, two pigs each under 80 lb. live weight to count as one, three pigs each under 60 lb. live weight to count as one.

When carried in crates, a separate crate shall be assigned to each pig. Crates shall be arranged in rows and, if stacked, there shall be two layers or tiers only. Rows, if not single, shall be two deep only. Crates shall be so arranged that all the pigs' heads in a single row face the same way, and in a double row face outwards. On the side or ends of a row of crates the pigs' heads face, an alleyway shall be left, eighteen inches wide, to allow food and water to be given. All the crates in a row which is not stacked shall be securely fastened together. In the case of a stacked row there shall be pairs of strong upright posts, which may be of a detachable type, of a height not less than the top of the upper layer or tier, securely fastened to the deck and supporting the row or stack. Such pairs of posts shall be fixed at each end of the stack and at intervals of not more than five crates in the stack's length. Each pair of posts supporting a stack shall be securely fastened together.

NEW BUILDING ORDINANCE.

NO MORE "DEATH-TRAP" HOUSES.

The Government Gazette contains an amended Ordinance to the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance of 1930.

Among the many clauses, the following is of public interest:—Every main staircase hereafter erected in any building which is constructed or adapted or converted, either wholly or in part as a tenement house for separate families shall be, together with the landings and enclosure walls thereof, of fire resisting materials. All door and window openings or glazed partitions communicating with any such staircase shall be adequately protected by fire resisting doors of solid teak not less than two inches thick or by wired glazing or by some other method equally satisfactory to the Building Authority.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this Ordinance is to substitute for section 121 of Ordinance No. 1 of 1903, a section which deals with rules relating to stairs and the trend and rise of staircases—a new section in which further rules, making for safety in cases of fire, are laid down for the construction of future stairways; and also to restore the Medical Officer of Health to his former position as a member of the Sanitary Board in place of the Director of Medical and Sanitary Services who was appointed ex-officio to the Board last year the better to enable him to make a study of its workings.

HONG KONG AMUSEMENTS, LTD.

DIVIDEND OF 20 PER CENT. FOR FOURTH YEAR IN SUCCESSION.

CAPITAL TO BE INCREASED TO ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Presiding at the annual and extraordinary general meetings of the Hong Kong Amusements, Limited, which were held at the Queen's Theatre on Saturday, Mr. J. M. Noronha announced that it was now the fourth year in succession that the company was able to pay a dividend of 20 per cent., not taking into account the bonus, and that the Directors felt confident that this satisfactory result would continue to be maintained.

Speaking at the extraordinary general meeting, the Chairman stated that the object for which the meeting was called was to give effect to certain resolutions which, if carried out, would enable the company to increase its capital to one million dollars. He explained that the company's business had grown out of all proportion with the original capital investment.

CHAIRMAN ON COMPANY'S PROSPECTS.

Supporting the Chairman were Messrs. Lo Kan, Lo Shun Wan, J. S. Gubbay, Lee Yu Cheung, Ma Tsui Chiu, J. Harrop (representing Mr. J. H. Backhouse) (directors) and Mr. Chas. S. Rosset (Secretary).

Shareholders present were Messrs. Ko Leong' Hoo, J. Noronha, Ho Ki, C. C. Tso, P. Poon, Allan S. Banker, M. A. Kam, O. L. dos Remedios, S. N. Chau, K. C. Chau, J. Alves, Wong Cheung Lam, Yu Yat Yue, Fong Wai Shan, Ma Lau Shau and D. M. Biggar.

Addressing shareholders at the ordinary yearly meeting, the Chairman said:—

Owing to the absence of your Chairman, Mr. Backhouse, who had to leave for Home in April last, I am privileged to address you today. The report and statement of accounts together with the auditors' report having been in your hands for a clear week, I will follow the usual custom and take them as read. Before proposing the adoption of these accounts I would like to state that the seeming delay in calling this meeting was due to the sudden introduction of "talkies" in all the principal theatres comprised in our circuit. This innovation has, naturally, brought in its train a complete change in the system of working, and as this change happened to coincide with the last months of our financial year some delay was experienced in reconciling the accounts from several of these theatres, necessitating exchange of correspondence extending over a few weeks.

Change in Policy.
The year under review, viz., 1929-1930, registered a change in our policy through the purchase of various properties for the erection of our own theatres, a change which in the opinion of the board is not only desirable but wise.

As indicated in the balance sheet we acquired the following 3 properties:—

1. Kowloon Inland Lot No. 2295 containing an area of 19,110 square feet;
2. A lot on Avenida Almeida Ribeiro, Macao, containing an area of 1,322 square metres or about 13,250 square feet;
3. A lot at Swatow containing an area of 5,600 square feet.

These are all very valuable sites, centrally situated and admirably suited for our purposes, and your directors have every confidence in their successful development.

Our profit for this year, after providing for the usual depreciation, amounts to $116,331.61, which with the amount brought forward from the previous year amounts to $123,447.52, which is slightly more than the previous year. The "legal" reserve of 5 per cent. is being appropriated as usual and we recommend to place $50,000 to general reserve. The bonus to staff is the same amount as for the previous year and is to be distributed by the managing director according to his apportionment, and I am quite sure you will agree that they have deserved this appreciation of their services.

It is also proposed to declare a dividend of 20 per cent. on preferred ordinary shares, which means 81 per cent. on deferred ordinary shares, according to the articles of association, plus a bonus on all shares of 50 cents, which amounts to a return of 25 per cent. on the preferred ordinary shares. This now leaves a balance of $49,630.91 to be carried forward to the credit of the next account, approximately $1,500 more than the previous figure. This makes the fourth year in succession that your company has paid a dividend of 20 per cent. not taking into account the bonus, and your directors feel confident that this satisfactory result will continue to be maintained.

Growing Business.
Turning to the balance sheet you will notice in the various reserves an amount of $164,500.38. Sundry creditors amount to $363,235.51, and these practically all represent accounts for films. The chief item in the assets to bring before your notice is the figure for films and film rights. This amount has been considerably increased on account of the increased cost of sound and talking pictures.

Your chairman hinted in his speech last year that our business has grown out of proportion with the original capital investment and that it was likely that time would necessitate calling upon you for an increase of capital. You are aware by now that this has come to pass and the matter will be brought up at an extraordinary general meeting which will immediately follow our present meeting.

With these remarks, gentlemen, I beg to propose that the directors' report and statement of accounts for the twelve months ended March 31, 1930, be adopted, and after this has been duly seconded I shall be glad to answer, to the best of my ability, any questions shareholders might wish to put.

Seconded by Mr. Ho Ki, the report and accounts were unanimously passed.

Messrs. J. H. Backhouse and Lee Yu Cheung were re-elected directors on the proposal of Mr. Gubbay and seconded by Mr. Ko Leong' Hoo.

On the proposition of Mr. Remedios and seconded by Mr. Poon, Messrs. Lindest & Davis were re-elected auditors at the yearly remuneration of $500.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING.

The extraordinary general meeting called to consider and, if thought fit, to pass certain resolutions, was held immediately after the business of the annual meeting had terminated.

In explaining the purpose for which the meeting was convened, the Chairman said:—

As you are all aware, this extraordinary general meeting is being convened for the purpose of increasing the capital of this company to $1,000,000.

Those of you who have watched the growth and progress of this company can readily see that the business has grown out of proportion with the original capital investment. And this fact, coupled with the proposed acquisition of the Queen's Theatre, has, after very careful and prolonged consideration, prompted your directors to bring up the proposals that are now being put before you.

To achieve this end, certain legal procedures are required and these have been thoroughly embodied in the notice convening this meeting which has just been read to you by the Secretary.

I might here explain that, in reality, there are only two classes of shares at present, namely, deferred ordinary shares and preferred ordinary shares. In the notice and circulars that have been sent out you will have noticed that the existing shares have been designated into three classes. This has been necessary on account of the wording of the company's memorandum of association in that 5,000 ordinary shares of $10 each may be issued under such conditions as may be decided by the company and these were actually issued with the same preferential rights as the preferred ordinary shares thus making them one and the same class.

Change of Articles.

Briefly, it is required to alter the memorandum and articles of the company and to, firstly, reduce the present capital by the cancellation of the deferred ordinary shares, then to extinguish the preferential rights attached to the preferred ordinary shares and the ordinary shares issued with preferential rights and then, to increase the capital by $90,000 to provide 8,000 ordinary shares of $10 each to be issued to the deferred shareholders in substitution for the deferred ordinary shares.

The holders of the deferred ordinary shares will not be required to pay up the additional $5 per share, as the requisite sum of $5 per share (totaling $40,000) will be transferred from our reserve fund and capitalised in order to make the new shares fully paid. This bonus of $5 per share included in the exchange of one ordinary share of $10 fully paid for each deferred ordinary share is in the nature of compensation to the holders of the deferred ordinary shares for relinquishing their benefits under Article 107 of the articles of association.

The next step is to increase the capital of the company to $1,000,000 by the creation of 80,000 additional ordinary shares of $10 each (this includes the 8,000 shares to be issued to the holders of deferred ordinary shares as above mentioned) of which 24,000 will be offered to shareholders at a premium of $2.50 per share, 20,000 will be offered to the public at a premium of $10 per share and the remaining 36,000 will be subsequently offered at a minimum premium of $10 per share at such times and on such conditions as the directors may think fit.

Earning Capacity Bigger.

At already mentioned, if these proposals receive your approval the continued progress and successful development of the business of the company can be viewed with great confidence, as the acquisition of the Queen's Theatre would materially reduce operation costs to the company and part of the capital can be utilised for developing the sites which the company has already acquired. After very careful consideration your directors have every confidence that the progress and earning capacity of the company will not only be maintained but increased.

If your directors by the extraordinary resolutions of this meeting obtain your sanction to proceed with the increase of capital and the decision is confirmed at the meeting which has been called for October 13, we shall proceed to take all the necessary legal steps to make the necessary application to the Court to give effect to the resolutions which are mentioned in the notice and which have been read to you at this meeting.

I would now formally propose that these resolutions be passed as extraordinary resolutions, and after this has been seconded, if shareholders present desire any information, I shall be glad to answer questions to the best of my ability.

The proposal was seconded by Mr. D. M. Biggar and passed unanimously.

ZORHAN WINS AGGREGATE STAKES BY SIX LENGTHS.

EASILY ACCOUNTS FOR PRIDE OF TSINGTAO.

HEAVY COURSE AND GOING AGAINST FAVOURITES: NATIONALIST II. AND HERODOM DISAPPOINT.

CHRISTMAS BELLE PAYS BIG DIVIDEND.

Saturday's racing certainly proved conclusively that Mr. Chan Tin Sion has the best stable in Hong Kong. His representative Zorhan won the Aggregate Stakes in convincing fashion, accounting for Pride of Tsingtao without any effort as I predicted. Another representative from this stable won the "A" Class handicap over a mile and a quarter by several lengths from Mike and Nationalist II, and in fact his running was so good that there never was any doubt from the "Go" that he was running in a class by himself. In the other "A" Class handicap over three-quarters of a mile Winsome Stag fought Royal Flush over every inch of the ground in the straight and lost on the post by the smallest of margins conceivable. Mr. A. J. P. Heard won this event on Royal Flush, and the horsemanship of this experienced jockey was a great factor in depriving Winsome Stag of victory.

Just prior to the start a small but continuous shower fell, and its effect on the course was to make it very heavy. Consequently, times were on the slow side. The biggest dividend of the day was paid by Christmas Belle in the "B" Class six furlongs handicap. The pony was brought home by Mr. Backhouse, a much-improved jockey, to pay over $330 per ticket.

Chinese owners, it will be seen from the results, won six out of the nine races on the card.

LARGE ATTENDANCE DESPITE RAIN.

In spite of the uncompromising weather there was a large crowd at the grandstands. His Excellency the Governor arrived shortly after the third race.

Except for Nationalist II, which was badly defeated, Herodom was the biggest disappointment of the afternoon. The pony, ridden by Mr. Ip Kui Ying, started favourite in the event for Novices. He was running smoothly and looked every inch a winner until the five furlong post when he suddenly stopped and jumped the rails, throwing Mr. Ip. Nothing daunted, Mr. Ip saddled for the next event, but here again the pony showed some circus tricks when, about three furlongs from home.

THE RACING.

Jordan Handicap "C" Class.

Fourteen starters saddled for the first race and Mount Elburz was made favourite with Monk and Oaisir next in demand. Shanghai Beau was also well-fancied but Sonny Boy carried comparatively few tickets. Monk led throughout and won easily by two lengths. Mount Elburz came through to occupy second place in the last hundred yards, while Sonny Boy had all his work cut out to oust Shanghai Beau from third place. On the running, Sonny Boy was obviously handicapped by his weight and was indeed well ridden to secure a place at all. Had the course been hard and fast a different tale might be told. Oaisir, one of the fancied ones, never got near enough at any stage to look dangerous.

Jordan Handicap "A" Class. Seven starters took the field with Royal Flush (Mr. Heard) in biggest demand, and Winsome Stag and Young Pretender next in demand. Royal Flush's past record undoubtedly accounted for much of the support that was given him.

Winsome Stag and Young Pretender shot to the van early on, and Young Pretender was all spent before the rock was reached, doing the first quarter in 28 seconds. Winsome Stag took command from point and led into the straight with Royal Flush and Young Pretender in close attendance. Royal Flush drew up with the leader, but Young Pretender gave up long before the winning post was reached. He was then passed by Peppercorn and San Francisco.

Meanwhile Royal Elph and Winsome Stag had an interesting tussle between themselves. The Stag gradually lost ground, but the pace was so slow that many doubted if Royal Flush could make up the yard or so that lay between the two animals when a hundred yards from home. Slowly but steadily Mr. Heard drew level and in the last few strides got his mount in front. The official verdict was a length. Actually it looked much less.

Jordan Handicap "B" Class. The biggest dividend of the day was paid here when Mr. Backhouse brought home Christmas Belle, the least-fancied pony from a field of nine. The start was none too good and Marquis Hall was among those left, the pony falling even to find a place at the end. Christmas Frolic held a pretty good position throughout and led into the straight, but from the distance post, Christmas Belle took command and won by a length and a half. Fifty Five was second and Christmas Frolic third.

Fourth Aggregate Stakes. Black Beauty, Pride of Tsingtao and Zorhan were the only ones to be taken seriously. The three favourites were evenly matched, with the slightest knowledge of form could have predicted the result. Black Beauty gave a lot of trouble at the start and when the field was sent away he was many lengths in arrears. Both Zorhan and Pride of Tsingtao were content to make a slow race of it over the first quarter. Mr. Harriman on the favourite was slightly in front throughout until the straight was reached when Zorhan drew away and won without an effort. On Saturday's form, the winner could have carried an additional ten pounds and still have won. Black Beauty was many lengths behind Pride of Tsingtao. The time was very slow, Zorhan recording 2 minutes and 6 seconds.

Nathan Handicap "B" Class.

Mr. S. Y. Liang on Little Thunder scored a meritorious win here over The Goods ridden by Mr. Heard. The state of the course helped Little Thunder considerably, as the slow going was all to his liking and the last quarter found him far ahead of the others in stamina. Had the going been fast, The Goods would undoubtedly have won. Monterey Bay showed the way round and over the first mile was a few lengths to the good, but faded away in the straight. The Goods was troubled by the slow going, and although he was well ridden, he could not make any impression on the winner. Pacey was well ridden to secure third place from Monterey Bay.

Jordan Handicap "D" Class.

The Partridge was favourite by a long way here and he won handsomely, although at one time he lost ground rapidly and gave his supporters a momentary fright. Mr. Loo, who was riding, sent his mount to the front at the start, but after a furlong he began to ease his mount to allow the others to draw near. For a while it looked as if he could not hold the lead, but once the rock was reached, he allowed his mount to run freely again and the animal came home a winner by six lengths. Ploughman and Duke of Milan finished in that order paying fairly good place dividends.

Carnation Stakes.

There were only four starters here, Herodom, Chesapeake Bay, Mr. Kau Siao and Diana. The betting was all between Herodom and Chesapeake Bay, with the former slightly more in demand. The flag-fall saw Diana and Mr. Kau Siao in the lead with Herodom picking up ground on the outside. Chesapeake Bay at first lagged behind, but after the first quarter, which by the way was very fast, made up ground. At the five furlong post, Herodom stopped suddenly and Mr. Ip was thrown off by the force of the lurch. The pony then jumped the fence, but was later brought back to stable. Chesapeake Bay outpaced the others and won by many lengths. Mr. Kau Siao was the only other to finish as Diana unseated his jockey a few yards from home.

The defeat of Nationalist II here was the biggest disappointment of the afternoon as the pony had the services of Mr. Heard and was confidently expected to win. He failed to show his usual turn of speed and before the race was half over Winsome Stag had established such a comfortable lead that nothing short of a miracle could have deprived him of victory. Mike was second throughout. Nationalist II only got a place when he responded very gamely in the straight which he entered almost last.

Austin Handicap.

For some strange reason the public preferred to make White Star the favourite in this event. Herodom and Pacey carried an equal number of tickets with Teuchit next in demand. The three favourites were evenly matched, with the slightest knowledge of form could have predicted the result. Black Beauty gave a lot of trouble at the start and when the field was sent away he was many lengths in arrears. Both Zorhan and Pride of

Meanwhile Mr. Pan, who was riding Pacey, dropped behind somewhat, but in the straight he made a determined effort and soon overhauled all the others, but Teuchit was a bit too far ahead to be caught.

IRREPRESSIBLE "BILLY."

It is generally recognised as axiomatic, both in public and private life, "you can't keep a good man down." He may be toppled over temporarily; he may be disabled for a time by the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune, but eventually will recover his lost power and prestige. As to whether WILLIAM MORRIS HUGHES is entitled to be ranked among the "good" those who know the man and his career will form very different opinions. Those who are not acquainted with his record may get an idea of the peculiar position he holds in Australian politics by a comparison with DAVID LLOYD GEORGE. "Billy" HUGHES is regarded by those who were his warmest supporters in the early days of the Labour movement in Australia as a traitor—or, more colloquially, a "twister." By those in the opposite camp—who at one time gladly welcomed him as a convert from what may be conveniently though inaccurately called "Bolshevism"—he is regarded as discredited and dishonoured. Respected neither by his former colleagues in the Labour or Nationalist parties, "Billy" comes forward with a new policy of his own.

According to a recent Reuter cable, Mr. HUGHES, addressing an enthusiastic audience in Sydney, declared that the Australian party stood, among other things, for the abolition of the Legislative Councils, of State Governors and of Agents-General, a reduction of the State Assemblies to at least half their present size, the encouragement of Australian industries, the establishment of Food Control Boards, and a uniform basic wage and standard hours. Of course, "Billy's" audience was enthusiastic. Who would not enthuse under the stimulating eloquence of a man who promises to solve the problems afflicting a nation? And the ex-Prime Minister of Australia, like his compatriot the ex-Prime Minister of Great Britain, has "a way with him" when addressing a political meeting. Like Mr. Lloyd George, the "little digger" can—when he is in the mood—work up an audience to an amazing pitch of enthusiasm, and the policy outlined in his recent speech at Sydney is one which lends itself to the frenzied eloquence and bitter vituperation for which Mr. HUGHES is famous. No doubt he made a great impression as he revealed proposals for one reform after another—all of them well calculated to tickle the ears of the groundlings, but what then?

The great Commonwealth of Australia, like practically all other nations, is suffering from trade depression. Like most other nations—and more so than many—it is also suffering from politicians and their policies. The country is faced with many grave difficulties, of which the most serious are not the abolition of Upper Houses nor the disappearance of State Governors at home and Agents-General abroad. Mr. SCULLIN, who now holds the office once held by Mr. HUGHES, on the eve of his departure from Australia to attend the Imperial Conference in London, said he was going as the representative of a proud nation which had always paid, and always would pay, its way. The trouble is, however, that the Commonwealth—like many industrial and commercial concerns these days—while far from being insolvent, is not able to lay hands on sufficient ready cash to meet the calls made upon it. Hence the angry demand made in some quarters that national debts be repudiated, and the suggestion made by others that a moratorium be declared. This is the big problem facing Australia—but it does not appear that Mr. HUGHES has given any attention to it. Perhaps he remembers that he himself was largely responsible for some of the extravagances which have still to be paid for.

BRITAIN'S SPEEDIEST SHIP.

DESTROYERS are expected to do 35 or 36 knots when out on serious business, and they do it—much to the discomfort of all hands in bad weather, and without much pleasure even in good. But a vessel more speedy than the fastest destroyer has been designed, built, and put through her trials with complete success. She is driven by twin sets of impulse and reaction turbines of the Parsons type, and could give the Bremen or Europa something like ten knots an hour and a beating. It may be that this ship—H.M.S. Codrington—is the fastest vessel which has ever traversed the sea, outside mere speed-boat ventures of the Miss England type, and even now her builders, Messrs. Swan, Hunter & Wigham Richardson, and her engineers, the Wallsend Slipway and Engineering Company, do not know her full capabilities.

In the shipyard monthly issued by the first-named firm (the builders of the Mauretania) an account is given of the Codrington's trials off the Berwickshire coast this summer when in deep water "a mean speed of 38 knots was recorded, and this was maintained for four hours, the speed on certain runs approaching 40 knots. The next day a similar performance was maintained for over six hours." This speed works out at something like one thousand land miles a day. Yet there was no attempt to press the machinery, which shows a shaft-horse-power of 29,000, to the full, for her builders add: "If there had been any desire to obtain the maximum power, some famous records might have been made." H.M.S. Codrington, named after the Admiral who commanded the Orion at Trafalgar, and the combined fleets at Navarino in the Great War of Independence, is armed with eight torpedo tubes, five 4.7 guns and seven smaller weapons. She is the first ship of this type designed for the British Navy since the war ended, and was christened by Lady Codrington, whose husband is a grandson of the Admiral after whom the ship is named.

A Chinese youth was ordered to receive ten strokes of the cane by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for assaulting an Indian watchman employed at the Po Hing Theatre, Nathan Road. It was stated that the defendant, on being refused admission to the theatre by the complainant struck him a blow on the chin. Two or three minutes later he returned and threw a stone which cut complainant's face. Defendant then tried to run away, but, on turning, fell down and was caught by the watchman.

The motor-car belonging to Mr. C. J. Tacchi, reported to the Police as having been stolen from the Peder Street rank on Thursday night, was discovered abandoned and undamaged in Bonham Road on Saturday night.

An interesting story about the origin of Charles Darwin's great work, "Origin of Species," was unfolded by Colonel John Murray, of the noted publishing firm, in an address to the students at the City of London vacation course in London last month. "Many years ago," said Colonel Murray, "my grandfather received a book which he read and considered very remarkable. He took it to his friend, Mr. George Pollock, for him to read, and see what he made of it. He read it, and said: 'Murray, this is not only a very remarkable book, but a revolutionary book. I think you can safely publish one thousand copies.' That book was Charles Darwin's 'Origin of Species.' He also told the students of a letter curiously addressed by an American to 'Co. The Murray Pub., London,' which was correctly delivered to his firm by the Post Office without hesitation.

secret organization to defeat the Marketing Act in their industry, the Government has threatened to amend the law so as to enable the courts to confiscate the entire crop of a farmer guilty of an infraction. Small fines, it is stated, do not appear sufficient to prevent the widespread violation of the law by Orientals, though white potato growers generally observe it strictly. It is believed the threat of confiscation will secure the desired results. The present Government is not very enthusiastic over the Marketing Act, but will not tolerate a systematic attempt to violate any statute.

The Medical Officer of Health for the City of London, Dr. Charles F. White, reports to the Corporation that the total number of inspections for the past year was 127, representing a net number of 82 boats. The remainder—45—representing repeated visits by inspectors. No boat was detained for cleaning. The infringements of the regulations represented 21.23 per cent. of the total inspections. The percentage for the previous five years was 43.29. At the end of the year there were 314 boats on the register—502 propelled by sails and oars, 15 by steam and seven by motors. Seven boats were registered during the year. Of the 82 boats inspected 30 carried children, 56 in all. The average number of children per boat was 4.80.

Professor Hansen, who for many years has carried out special investigations of the skulls and skeletons found in the tombs of historical persons, has for some time been occupied in studying the human skeleton, which was found in Gardar Churchyard, Greenland. He has now arrived at the conclusion that "modern pre-Neolithic man" was simply a very large, coarse Viking type. This has led Professor Hansen to form the opinion that the theories in regard to the finds of other pre-Neolithic types may be modified, and that perhaps too much stress has been put on "negroid features."

Sun blisters which turned septic caused the death of a girl aged twelve months, one of forty children in the Wild Onk Nursing Home, Taunton. It was stated at the inquest that the babies' perambulators were frequently moved to shield them from the sun. The child was weakly from birth. The jury, returning a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence, exonerated the matron from blame.

The question why parents put their children's names down for the great public schools as soon as the children were born was raised by Lord Gorell recently. Speaking at the City of London vacation course, he said:—"The reason why parents continue to send their sons to Eton, Harrow, or Winchester can hardly be that they believe that they are going to get the very best education for their child. It is certainly not true that the more parents pay the better the education. As a matter of fact, the converse is almost true. I think it is an axiom that in private and public schools the masters and mistresses have had the least training in education. 'If a parent wants the best education possible for his boy or girl, it would probably be obtained by engaging a set of expert private coaches.' One reason for the rush to the great public schools is possibly due to a custom which originated in the first place to a desire to be rid of a space of the boys and girls. Another reason, and probably the main one, is because of the social side."

British Columbia's drastic agricultural marketing legislation, which goes further in controlling agricultural prices than any statute in America, will be made more drastic still unless it is obeyed more generally by Chinese farmers. Informed that Chinese potato growers of the Fraser River valley outside Vancouver, have formed a

A solicitor told a policeman at Ivinghoe (Bucks) police court that he went too far to ask two girls riding on the back of a motor-cycle if they were married or single.

Girls on an Australian farm, where there are often difficulties with labour, have to be very resourceful. That they rise bravely to an emergency has been proved again by the feat of Lily Hartfield, 16-year-old daughter of William Hartfield of York Peninsula, who recently harvested more than 100 acres of barley. Mr. Hartfield had purchased a power-driven header, but while the harvesting was in progress he had to leave the farm. His partner was left without a driver for the machine. Lily Hartfield set to work to understand the mechanism and in a day or two was proficient. She took off more than 100 acres of grain without the slightest hitch. Now, although the father is back on the farm, Lily remains one of the working hands. She says it is more thrilling than motoring. Fond of horses, she can harness a team as quickly as her father.

A proposal to erect a British House in each of the capital cities of the Empire, similar to Australia House in London, is being considered by the Overseas Department of the Board of Trade and the Treasury. This was suggested by Mr. Lyall Willis, head of a London export firm, who has just completed his eleventh trip round the world. "In my travels in the Dominions and Colonies I was always having complaints from business men about the difficulty of obtaining commercial information concerning Great Britain," said Mr. Willis. "Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and other parts of the Empire have set us an example by their Houses in London where every kind of information is available for the benefit of British traders and tourists."

As a result of the explosion in a fire-cracker factory in Mongkok last week in which a young Chinese girl lost her life, two Chinese women were brought before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday on a charge of making fire-crackers without a licence. The police applied for a week's remand which was granted.

His Excellency the Governor has made the following appointments: A Police Magistrate, with effect from September 22, Mr. Henry Robert Butters to be Police Magistrate, Kowloon, with effect from September 22. Flight-Lieut. Albert James Moss to be Superintendent of the Civil Aerodrome at Hong Kong, with effect from September 11. Lieut. John Arthur Lemuel Schreier, Royal Artillery, to be Adjutant-General, with effect from January 1.

The Royal Military College, Camberley, reopened for the winter term on August 28, the reopening of Sandhurst, on this occasion being marked by the entry of eleven military students of Chinese nationality, who join the new Junior division. Though not included as part of the strength of the division, as they are not intended for commissioning to the British or Indian Armies, the Chinese cadets, who are officially described as "attached," will undergo the same course of instruction as the ordinary cadets, will wear the same uniform, and be subject to the same discipline. They are the first batch of their nationality to be attached to the college, and their progress is likely to be followed with interest. Apart from the Chinese cadets, the new Junior division has a total strength of 178. As last term, the new division includes an increased number of Indian cadets for training for commissions in the Indian Army. The total of Indian cadets this term will be twenty-six as against eighteen last term.

A note left in a woman's handbag and read at an inquest at Loos, Cornwall, stated: "Please bury me just as I am. I have no relations. I am quite a stranger to these parts. Please don't bother to make inquiries." It was stated that the woman, whose name was unknown, fell from a third-storey window of a house at Loos, where she took a room. Inquiries in London and in towns in the South of England have failed to establish her identity. She was about 72. A verdict of Suicide while of Unsound Mind was recorded.

Mr. Lansbury was enthusiastic last month about a scheme proposed to him as First Commissioner of Works, for turning Trafalgar Square into a nightly Fairground. The scheme was proposed by two business men and includes fairy lamps at night, banks of flowers, bands to provide music, and light refreshments. Mr. Lansbury said: "I certainly think that Trafalgar Square could be improved. If such a scheme was carried out it would certainly relieve the deadly monotony and tedium of the Square for people who sit on the edges of the fountain with nothing to do. Those responsible for the scheme are willing to find the money, and I think the suggested improvements are excellent. I shall have to consult experts to see if the scheme is practical before any steps are taken."

A gift of £20 is announced from the Trustees of the Canon Warren Charitable Bequest towards the building of a Hostel for Women Students in connection with the Hong Kong University. The Government Committee appointed to consider proposals for the construction of a ship canal between the Forth and the Clyde, Scotland, have reported against the project. Their main conclusion is that the cost would be about £20,000,000; all the capital would have to be provided by the Exchequer; the revenue is conjectural; and they see no prospect of development of the canal area which would justify the expenditure. Commenting on the statement that the work would afford employment to 25,000 men and indirect employment to a further 15,000 men, the committee state that they are advised that the employment of so large a number of men on a canal only 20 miles long would present problems of organization and supervision before the greatest difficulty.

Looking Back 25 Years. One of the best features of a sea-bath, says the Family Doctor, is the salt water inadvertently swallowed by bathers, which is a wonderful tonic for the liver, stomach, and kidneys. CHIANG WILL CONTINUE FIGHTING.

MAY HAVE REPERCUSSION IN MANCHU CIRCLES.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

TIENSIN, Sept. 27. Owing to the fact that numerous official questions are still being held in abeyance, the situation is still far from clear, and it is believed that Chiang Kai Shek's announcement that he will continue fighting until Yen Hsi Shan and Feng Yu Hsiang are completely eliminated, may have a serious repercussion in Manchurian circles, whose invasion of these districts would thereby largely be nullified.

Elaborate Precautions Taken.
The situation continues to be very quiet and a joint military and police office has been established near the Central Station, where the military and police are co-operating for the establishment of order in the city areas, though so far there have not been the slightest disturbances.

Elaborate precautions are being taken and rigid discipline is being enforced among all ranks of the newly-arrived troops.

Second Manchurian Army.

TIENSIN, Sept. 28. The Second Manchurian Army, which is now arriving, consists of the Second, Fourth and Twenty-fifth Brigades, the majority of whom are being sent down the Tientsin-Pukow Railway towards Tsangchow and intermediate points.

Feng Holding His Own.

PEIPING, Sept. 27. It is learned that bandits have captured Kingchow, Kienli, and Sinyangchow. The Foreign authorities are without much independent information from Honan, but believe that Feng Yu Hsiang is holding his own. They are receiving reports of the reverses of the Kuomintang with considerable reserve.

It is believed that the cutting of the railway at Sinyangchow may prove a significant feature with developments.

The Shanxi forces, who have gone south from Shihchiang, are understood not to have gone further than Changteh.

Headquarters of Plenary Session of C.E.C.

The vernacular papers state that an enlarged plenary meeting on September 23 decided to remove the headquarters to Tsuiyuanfu.

Peiping and Tientsin Mayors.

It is reported that Mukden is appointing Chu Chi Chien, who was Minister of the Interior under Yuan Shih Kai, as Mayor of Peiping, and the well-known educationist, Chang Po Lin, Mayor of Tientsin.

Manchur Occupied Boundaries.

PEIPING, Sept. 28. Yu Hsueh Chung, interviewed by a large party of Chinese Pressmen, this morning, stated that the Manchurians would occupy the Peiping-Tsuiyuanfu Railway as far as the Nankow Pass, the Peiping-Hankow Railway as far as Tingchow, and the Tientsin-Pukow Railway to Lienshiangchen, near the Shantung border.

Chang's Visit to Peiping.

PEIPING, Sept. 28. The vernacular papers state that Chang Hsueh Liang will leave Mukden for Peiping on October 1.

Commissioner's Appeals Refused.

MUKDEN, Sept. 28. Mr. Lenox Simpson's appeals to Chang Hsueh Liang to continue his services as Customs Commissioner at Tientsin have been flatly refused.

Mr. Lenox Simpson Remains Silent.

TIENSIN, Sept. 27. Interviewed at noon today, Mr. T. Y. Koo, Deputy Commissioner of Customs, stated that no news had yet been received from Mr. Lenox Simpson, whose interview with Marshal Chang Hsueh Liang was apparently of long duration.

Chinese Superintendent of Customs.

TIENSIN, Sept. 28. Mr. Lenox Simpson returned today, but callers at his residence were informed that he was "out."

In the meantime, according to Chinese sources, Han Lin Sun, a brother of the Manchurian General, Han Lin Chun, has been appointed Chinese Superintendent of Customs, while the question of the appointment of Commissioner apparently is still held in abeyance.

(Wah Tsi Yat Pao.)

MUKDEN, Sept. 28. Mr. Lenox Simpson, the Commissioner of Tientsin Customs, has arrived here to interview Chang Hsueh Liang.

In an interview with Pressmen, Mr. Simpson said that he will discuss the Tientsin Customs question, after which he will return to Tientsin to hand over the Customs administration.

LAND REVENUE REMITTED TO VILLAGERS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PARACHINAR, Sept. 28. At a Durbar, attended by the leading military and civil officials and tribal leaders, Mr. Pears, Chief Commissioner on the North-West Frontier Province, announced that this year the land revenue would be remitted fully and that a month's extra pay would be granted to all ranks of the Kurram militia, and pensions and gratuities paid to village armed levies and the dependants of those killed in resisting the recent raids by frontier tribesmen.

The tribal leaders expressed their gratitude to the Viceroy (Lord Irwin), and again swore their loyalty to the British Raj.

The proceedings ended in a most enthusiastic march-past by the village levies, militia, and Baluchi troops in full fighting kit.

INDIAN CONGRESS RIOTERS SHOT.

PICKETERS WAGE WAR WITH POLICE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NAINITAL, Sept. 27. One rioter was killed and 45 sent to hospital during the riots here today.

Several of the police were hurt and many arrests made at Moradabad when the police fired on Congress volunteers, who were picketing the town hall to prevent the election of the Moslem local Council by destroying the ballot papers.

The rioters refused to disperse and stoned the police.

Rioters Sentenced.

MIDNAPUR, Sept. 27.

Nineteen men have been sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment, 10 to 18 months, one to a year, and three to six months on charges of rioting and assaulting the police at Khairi on June 13.

Fourteen, including a graduate of Cambridge University, were acquitted.

CAPT. MATTHEWS' PROGRESS.

ANXIETY FELT IN LONDON.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Sept. 27. Anxiety is felt in London at the lack of news of the airman Capt. Matthews, who, after being held up at Bangkok owing to bad weather, departed for Bangkok at 1.40 p.m. yesterday.

Captain Matthews, who is trying to beat the England to Australia flight record of fifteen and a half days, reached Bangkok on September 25 from Calcutta. He was still one day ahead of Bert Hinkler, the holder of the record.

Forced Landing in Siam.

BANGKOK, Sept. 27. The airman Capt. Matthews was forced to land this evening at Basmoo, 100 miles north of Bangkok.

More Mukden Officials.

MUKDEN, Sept. 27. It is announced that 23 appointments were made of high official posts in Chihli which included Pao Yu Lin as Chief of Police in Peiping and Chang Hsueh Liang, brother of Chang Hsueh Liang, as Chief of Police of Tientsin.

Nanking Confirms Manchurian Appointments.

NANKING, Sept. 27. The National Government has issued a mandate confirming the Manchurian appointments of Yu Hsueh Chung as garrison commander in Peiping and Tientsin area, and Wang Hui Chang as chairman of Hopei Provincial Government.

Branch of Weihaiwei Customs.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 27. The Finance Minister, Mr. T. V. Soong, has decided to establish a branch of the Customs of Weihaiwei under the administration of Chefoo.

TRAGIC DEATH OF FAMOUS ENGINEER.

SIR J. N. GRIFFITHS DIES IN A SCUF BOAT.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

CAIRO, Sept. 27. Sir John Norton Griffiths, the eminent engineer, was found dead in his hotel at Alexandria this morning. His company recently stopped the work of heightening the Assuan Dam, owing to the alleged incompetent interference of the resident engineers by the staff of the Egyptian Government.

The body of Sir John Norton Griffiths was found in a scuf boat and not in his hotel.

It appears that the deceased had paddled out alone from the beach at San Stefano, Alexandria, but that later it was noticed that the boat was unoccupied.

Another boat went out to investigate, when it was found that Griffiths was dead with a bullet wound in his temple.

When Sir J. N. Griffiths stopped work on the dam an Egyptian Government communiqué was issued which stated that he had written to the Government asking for financial assistance.

STATEMENT BY NANKING FOREIGN MINISTER.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NANKING, Sept. 28. In an interview with Press representatives, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Dr. C. T. Wang, made the following statement yesterday:—

Sino-Soviet Conference.

The Sino-Soviet Conference on the Chinese Eastern Railway issue will be inaugurated on October 11.

Rendition of Weihaiwei.

The rendition of Weihaiwei will take place on October 1. Wang Chia Ching and Hau Chu Sien, who were detailed to take over the control of Weihaiwei, have left for Weihaiwei.

Britain's Share of Boxer Indemnity.

The British share of the Boxer Indemnity with its accrued interest amounts to some £3,170,000. The British Government is willing to advance the returned fund should China devote it for the Canton-Hankow Railway.

ANGLO-CHINESE EXTRALITY CONFERENCE.

(Wah Tsi Yat Pao.)

NANKING, Sept. 28. Sir Miles Lampson, the British Minister, has left for Tientsin by submarine on his return to Peiping.

He is expected to return here by the end of next month to continue the "conversations" regarding the extrality issue.

YEN AND WANG FOR PARIS?

LATEST RUMOURS FROM THE NORTH.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

Chinese cable advices from Shanghai report that the Shanxi troops, under Hui Yung Chang and Tang Pao Shan, and the Kuomintang troops under Lu Chung Lin have offered to surrender to Nanking.

Yen Hsi Shan and Wang Chia Ching are reported to have decided to retire and leave for Paris via Siberia. Yen will entrust military and civil affairs to his right-hand men, Chao Tai Wen and Fu Tso Yi.

The Tientsin-Pukow Railway line is now free from the Shanxi troops. Chang Hsueh Liang's Fengtien troops have taken over the garrison on the railway to the north of Tsangchow. The Nanking troops have arrived at Tientsin at the northern border of Shantung. They have taken over the garrison at Peking on the Peiping-Hankow Railway.

At the request of Chang Hsueh Liang, the Central Government has appointed Yu Hsueh Chung Garrison Commander of Peiping and Tientsin and Wang Shu Chang Governor of Hopei. Yu arrived at Peiping on the 26th.

PRINCE PURACHATRA WILL VISIT HONG KONG.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SHANGHAI, Sept. 27. H.R.H. Prince Purachatra, brother of the King of Siam, who has been visiting Japan, will arrive at Shanghai on October 9.

It is expected that Prince Purachatra will visit Hong Kong on his return to Siam.

POLITICAL PUZZLE IN GERMANY.

BOURGEOIS COALITION IN BRUNSWICK.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, Sept. 27. In addition to Thuringia, where the National Socialists, led by Frick, are a decisive factor of the Government, another German State, namely, Brunswick, now has a Cabinet in which Fascists are represented.

The result is a "bourgeois coalition," including the People's Party, the State Party agreeing to form a Government which shall have command over half the votes in the Diet against the opposition of the Socialists and Communists.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM AT HOME.
CONTINUATION OF LIB-LAB "CONVERSATIONS."

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 28. The Labour-Liberal "conversations" on the unemployment question were continued today, when Mr. Lloyd George, accompanied by Lord Lothian and Mr. Scobell Bowdler, called at No. 1, Downing Street, and had an interview with the Prime Minister, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Philip Snowden.

BARONETCY FOR LONDON'S LORD MAYOR.

KNIGHTHOODS FOR TWO SHERIFFS.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 28. H.M. the King has approved a Baronetcy of the United Kingdom being conferred upon Sir William Waterlow on his retirement from the office of Lord Mayor of London.

Knighthoods have been conferred upon the retiring Sheriffs, Alderman Neal and Major Bowater.

OIL WELL IN GERMANY.

PRODUCING SIXTEEN TONS AN HOUR.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, Sept. 28. Reports from Nienhagen, in Hanover, that drilling operations have tapped an oil well, at present producing sixteen tons of oil an hour, have strengthened the belief in the opinion recently ascribed to the American oil magnate, Mr. Henry Sinclair, that Germany is capable of producing all the oil she needs.

Mr. Sinclair and other Americans were recently prospecting in various parts of Hanover.

AUSTRALIANS WANT TO FIGHT FOR CHINA.

OFFER POLITELY DECLINED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

SYDNEY, Sept. 27. Three hundred Australian Service men have offered to join the Nationalist forces in China, according to the Chinese Consul-General, to whom the offer was made by representatives of the ex-soldiers who explained times were bad in Australia, and that they sympathized with the Chinese Nationalists.

The Consul-General, however, politely declined the offer. The Returned Soldiers' League states that it is ignorant of the matter.

REALISTIC REPRODUCTION OF GALLIPOLI.

ONE THOUSAND MEN IN FILM.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 27. Over 1,000 men took part in a realistic reproduction of Gallipoli landing of 1915 for the British film just completed.

The principal scenes were "shot" at Malta, where several hundred marines from the British Mediterranean Garrison were loaned and uniforms for the actors were obtained by permission of the British and Australian Governments.

The Queen Elizabeth, which figured so prominently in the original campaign, was requisitioned for the film, and by dawn the landing from the transport River Clyde had been widely constructed.

WORLD'S DUTY TO NEXT GENERATION.

ONLY SAVINGS COULD CREATE NEW CAPITAL.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 27. Sir Basil Blackett, Director of the Bank of England, at Buxton yesterday, said the world as a whole was not storing up capital as fast as it ought to do. New capital was not being produced at a sufficient rate to secure for the next generation that advance and well-being which the next generation was entitled to expect from this generation. Only savings could create new capital, and at present the gospel of saving was out of fashion.

Referring to the taxation question Mr. Graham said that it is quite apart from any theory of protection. There was a very strong case today, as was recognized by a large number of "free traders," for revenue "carried in order to raise revenue needed by the Exchequer."

COURT REMOVES FROM BALMORAL TO LONDON.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 27. The Court will remove from Balmoral to London next Tuesday. The King and Queen, with equestrian and ladies-in-waiting, will travel by special Royal train on Monday evening, arriving at Buckingham Palace about breakfast time.

U.S. AMBASSADOR VISITS BELFAST.

QUEST OF OFFICERS OF ENNISKILLING REGIMENT.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 28. General Dawes, the American Ambassador, visited Belfast today as the guest of the officers of the Royal Eniskilling Fusiliers.

During the afternoon he was shown over the Queen's Island shipbuilding works, and was entertained by the Prime Minister of Northern Ireland at Stormont Castle.

ABYSSINIAN EMPEROR'S CORONATION.

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER TO BE PRESENT.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 27. The Duke of Gloucester will leave London on October 10 for Abyssinia to represent King George at the coronation of the Emperor.

He will join the Harpura at Marseilles, and travel in it to Aden. Thence he will go in H.M.S. Effingham to Jibuti, in French Somaliland.

A royal train will take him to Addis Ababa by October 20. After the coronation on November 2, feasting and ceremonies will continue in the capital for eight days, and at the end of that time the Duke will leave for British Somaliland to spend several days hunting big game. He expects to spend Christmas on the voyage home, and will reach England in the New Year.

GREAT BRITAIN'S INCOME.

PROVIDING FOR GREATER EMPLOYMENT.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 27. Mr. William Graham, President of the Board of Trade, speaking in Carlisle last night, said that within the aggregate national income of approximately £4,000,000,000 per annum there was considerable room for direct expenditure and for re-direction of expenditure from non-essential to essential services and commodities. That would provide a greater volume of employment and at the same time stimulate recovery. British taxation at £15 or £10 per head was undoubtedly the heaviest in the world. Meanwhile, British trade had encountered an unexampled economic storm. Commodities had moved rapidly downwards since last October. There were, however, signs that the bottom had now been touched, and at all events in certain leading commodities. There would be no general world recovery until the upward movement was of a definite character. Certain critics placed improvement at the end of the present year and others in the spring, but all agreed that it would be gradual in character.

H.M.S. CONQUEST BREAKS ADRIFT.

STRUCK BY SEVERE GALE WHILE IN TOW.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 28. During an exceptionally severe gale off the east coast of Britain, the old cruiser Conquest, which was in tow bound for Fife to be scrapped, broke adrift, and the tugboat which had her in charge has signalled all shipping to keep a strict lookout for the vessel, which was drifting 25 miles south of Flamborough Head.

The tug's message states there are six men on board the cruiser, which being out of control is dangerous to navigation.

The tug's efforts to take the cruiser in tow again were unsuccessful, owing to the weather, which shows no signs of moderating.

The British cruiser Conquest, which broke adrift in the North Sea with six men on board while being towed north for breaking up, was picked up and taken to the Humber last night by the Hull tug Seaman after drifting for several hours.

No anxiety was felt for the safety of the men on board the cruiser while the vessel was adrift, but the vessel was a potential danger to shipping, particularly owing to the exceptionally high seas that were running.

Several small craft were severely buffeted during the storm. Coastal shipping on the east coast of Scotland was held up, and several of the remaining autumn exercises of the fleet off the Moray Firth were abandoned.

The crew of the Danish motor schooner Doris failing to make harbour at Hartlepool was in peril of being driven upon the Longspear rocks, and a lifeboat after three unsuccessful attempts got alongside and took off the crew.

The Doris later dragged her anchors and drifted ashore.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

ENTERTAINMENT OF DELEGATES.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUSSBY, Sept. 28. As on the occasion of the last Imperial Conference, naval, military and Air Force displays are being organised to take place during the next few weeks, at which the overseas delegates to the Conference will attend.

The War Office displays will be held at Aldershot, and the Air Force display at Croydon, and the delegates will travel to Portland to view the naval exercises which are being arranged by the Admiralty.

Many banquets will be given in honour of the delegates. Among many others, they include a Government dinner and reception at which Mr. Ramsay MacDonald will preside, at Lancaster House on September 30.

On the following night, the Royal Empire Society, British Empire League, Victoria League, Overseas League and British Empire Club are giving a dinner for the delegates at the Mansion House, at which Prince Arthur of Connaught will be in the chair.

On October 3, the Prime Minister and Ministers and their wives will be the guests of the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace. The Prince of Wales will be present.

The Prince of Wales will also attend a dinner and reception to be given by the Empire Marketing Board on October 8.

"WET" CANDIDATE IN NEW YORK.

MR. TUTTLE NOMINATED FOR GOVERNORSHIP.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

ALBANY, Sept. 28. The advocate of a "wet" America, Mr. Tuttle, has been nominated as a Republican candidate for the Governorship.

It was reported on September 17 that the "Wets" had welcomed another champion of their cause in the person of Mr. Tuttle, the United States Attorney in New York, who had resigned his post. In a statement, Mr. Tuttle said he favoured an amendment of the Prohibition Act providing for State option, without saloons. He declared that while everybody desired temperance, nobody could be satisfied with present conditions. Mr. Tuttle is a prominent local Republican and is at present conducting an inquiry into the alleged scandals. He achieved prominence by his handling of the inquiry into the "Veitris" disaster.

up negotiations and to come to an agreement. Official confirmation of these reports are still unobtainable.

VILNA QUESTION AGREEMENT.

SETTLEMENT REALISED AT LAST.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

Kovno, September 28.—Reliable quarters confirm the recent reports concerning the conclusion of a Polish-Lithuanian agreement on the long-drawn-out Vilna question. Under the agreement, Poland will retain the larger part of the district together with its capital which was taken from Lithuania by force of arms in October, 1920, when the Polish General Zeligowski marched in with his legions and thus created a problem which not even the League of Nations dared to take up in earnest.

However, the proposed new frontier between the two states will run through the suburbs of Vilna, and there will be other concessions to Lithuania which in turn undertakes to extend facilities for a Polish naval base. It is said that the negotiations were conducted on the part of Poland by Joseph Pilsudski, a brother of the Marshal, while a representative of the Lithuanians played an important role in the negotiations.

Official confirmation of these reports are still unobtainable.

"GAZETTE DU FRANC."

MDME. HANAU ELOQUENTLY PLEADS HER CAUSE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PARIS, Sept. 28. A remarkable victory for feminine eloquence was achieved at a meeting in the great hall of the Tribunal of Commerce of 100 representatives of her 8,200 creditors by Madame Hanau, of Gazette du Franc fame, the failure of whose huge financial operations led to a cause célèbre a year or so ago.

Madame Hanau, neatly dressed in black and appearing quite composed, promised a full cash settlement within five years. She declared that she had been the victim of a financial coalition, and she pleaded her cause so eloquently that the creditors loudly applauded her and almost unanimously agreed to a composition, in spite of the official receiver's conclusion that her liabilities were £200,000 sterling and her assets only £200,000.

MANUFACTURE OF NARCOTICS.
BRITISH OBJECTION TO WIDER CONFERENCE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

GENEVA, Sept. 28. The Fifth Committee has passed a resolution requesting the Assembly to invite all State members and non-members of the League to the projected Conference of the limitation of manufacture of narcotics, and has further requested the Budget Committee to vote the necessary credits.

The British and Dominion delegates objected to the widening of the Conference, and did not vote.

NEW TURKISH CABINET.

FORMER MINISTERS REMAIN.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

ANKARA, Sept. 28. Ismet Pasha has formed a new Cabinet, the most important portfolios being held as before the resignation.

Some of the minor portfolios go to the Opposition Party. Ismet Pasha has modified his programme.

ITALIAN CROWN PRINCE'S ASSAILANT.

SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS' IMPRISONMENT.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BRUSSELS, Sept. 27. Fernando de Rosa, who was charged with having made an attempt on the life of the Italian Crown Prince last year, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment.

VILNA QUESTION AGREEMENT.

SETTLEMENT REALISED AT LAST.

HOME FOOTBALL RESULTS.

ENGLISH AND SCOTTISH LEAGUE MATCHES
ON SATURDAY.

ARSENAL AND EVERTON STILL AT THE TOP.

Results of the English League football matches on Saturday caused a separation in the joint leadership of the First Division, the Arsenal getting ahead of Aston Villa by two points. Manchester City, playing away, succeeded in getting one point from Derby, while Sheffield Wednesday shared in another drawn game, making the fourth of the season, as visitors to West Ham United.
Manchester United were left again without a point.

Everton retained the premier place in the Second Division by defeating Bradford City. Preston North End, their close rivals, also had a comfortable victory over Stoke. Port Vale, who beat the leaders the previous week, lost to Bury on the only goal of the match. Plymouth alone of the four bottom teams succeeded in securing the points.

Notts County and Lincoln, in the two sections of Division III, took full points, the former having a hard struggle with Watford.
Torquay did well in scoring four goals against Walsall. Bristol Rovers and Gillingham were in strong form against the visiting teams.

Partick Thistle had a bad fall in the Scottish League table, their opponents being the Rangers, who are back again at the top.
Motherwell improved their position by winning against Falkirk, while Celtic drew with Queen's Park.

Results as compiled by Reuter and League tables follow:—

AMERICA CUP.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON MAY TRY AGAIN.

[REUTER'S AMERICAN SERVICE.]

New York, Sept. 26.
That Sir Thomas Lipton will make another challenge for the America Cup is the interpretation placed upon a statement made by him in the house of the Mayor,
Mr. Walker, on whom he called to say farewell prior to his departure to-morrow on the s.s. Leviathan.
Sir Thomas said: "I think I can repay the generous spirit in which you have received me here by saying that I shall be back again before long for another trial." He would give no date.

FAREWELL TO DON BRADMAN.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

London, Sept. 26.
England to-day gave a farewell to Don Bradman, the wonder "boy" cricketer, who, with five other members of the team, left St.
Pancras Station on the first stage of their homeward journey.
The hundreds of well-wishers included the Australian girl hockey players who have just arrived for a tour in England, who gave a chorus of "coo-coo."

Bradman stated to Reuter: "I will not say good-bye, but only au revoir, because I hope to see you in 1934 if my cricket is still good enough."

LOCAL BASEBALL.

WHEATHER INTERFERES WITH LEAGUE PRO-GRAMME.

Owing to the wet weather, all baseball matches scheduled to take place over the week-end were postponed. When it cleared soon after lunch time yesterday, it was hoped that the Filipino-Texaco game might be played, but although little or no rain fell from that time, the ground was too sodden to permit of play.
